OUR STORY

A 15th-century wedding setting

Perched high above the rolling countryside of the Amber Valley, Higham Farm has stood for over five centuries. What began as a 15th-century farm has evolved into a 4-star hotel, where ancient oak beams, stone, and centuries of character sit alongside sleek, contemporary design.

Sweeping panoramic views across the valley set an unforgettable scene for your photographs, while light-filled suites and peaceful corners offer space to breathe, gather, and celebrate. From the quiet anticipation of morning preparations to late-night toasts under the Derbyshire stars, every detail is created to help you write your very own chapter here.
